Hanapēpē Town Park comfort station vandalized, burned on Tuesday

HANAPĒPĒ – On Tuesday June 18, park officials discovered the men's restroom of the Hanapēpē Town Park comfort station vandalized and burned.

"It is concerning that anyone would vandalize and burn a comfort station that is so widely used by the community," said Director of Parks and Recreation Patrick Porter. "We are hoping the public can assist in providing any information to the Kaua'i Police Department regarding this incident."

DOPR staff are in the process of assessing damages, and the restroom is closed until further notice.

To accommodate the hundreds of patrons that visit the weekly Sunshine Market at Hanapēpē on Thursdays as well as Friday Art Night, the County of Kaua'i is installing portable toilets to accommodate all park users.

A police report has been made, and an investigation is ongoing.

To report suspicious activity, please call Police Dispatch at 241-1711. Those wishing to remain anonymous may call Crime Stoppers Kaua'i at 246-8300.
